great picks from

standout local lines

Faux-stingray leather flip-flops by the owners of hip boutique Abejas channel the glamour of Saint-Tropez.

FLIP-FLOPS, $165, MIEL DE ABEJAS. ABEJAS, 713-522-3025

These lightly distressed hammered-gold earrings by Lisa Keeper Neuhaus have an exotic, handmade vibe.

EARRINGS, $500, CHARDE, 713-668-6350

Cool metal balances the warm wood on these salad servers by Schulenburg's Atticus.

SHAMPOO, $28, BROWN EYES BLUE BOUTIQUE AND SALON, 713-520-5577

Free of synthetics and petroleum, Beverly D's nourishing, coconut oil-based shampoo is an all-natural way to combat frizz.

SALAD UTENSILS, $116, KUHLLINSCOMB, 713-526-6000

Ann Brooks' crocheted necklace woven with beads and pearls looks equally pretty coiled like a choker or worn long, flapper-style.

NECKLACE, $110, MORE THAN YOU CAN IMAGINE, 713-668-8811

the lowdown...

recently opened

Set aside some time for the antique destination Relic Hunters (14520 Memorial Dr., Ste. 34, 281-589-3000), where you'll find display-worthy decorative fossils, druzy stones, sliced geodes, and kitschy-but-cool Himalayan-salt lamps.

T-SHIRT, $32, SWEET TEE COUTURE, SHOPATTHEBOUTIQUE.COM

new website

Danyett Baxter, owner of The Boutique, a shop housed in the bridal planning hub Two Be Wed, has launched Shopattheboutique.com, a cyberstore that stocks gifts for the betrothed, mother of the bride, and wedding attendants.
